3. The UTG/A course has been revised in recent weeks to cope with a smaller enrollment. Instead of the current news analyses and strategic area summaries, emphasis has been placed on the required reading lists. Seminar discussions, led by students, are conducted on two required readings each week.

STAT

4. [] now a member of the Wing B faculty, has just completed a highly successful series of three lectures on the theory of Communism for the UTG/A program. [] mentioned above, has also assisted in this program. As long as [] are available, I should like to make the study of Communism an integral part of the UTG/A program.
